

Welcome Back Bravo!

A popular restaurant chain that has been closed for more than 18 months is about to return to Allentown this month, along with others new retailers at the Lehigh Valley Mall. With so many businesses not being able to make ends meet during the coronavirus pandemic, the mall has many vacant retailer sites. The mall director hopes the return will attract other restaurants and retailers.

Bravo! Italian Kitchen, an Italian restaurant which closed in March of 2020, will reopen this month at the Lehigh Valley Mall location. The restaurant is an upscale-casual chain Italian restaurant. Some of their signature dishes are Pasta Bravo, Chicken Scalloppine, and Veal Parmesean. They also offer soups, salads and flatbreads as well as drinks and desserts. Owner Joe Peluso is happy to be back serving the community. It's been a long time, and we are excited to get this restaurant back open.

Bravo! Comes back with Curbside Pickup

Along with curbside, Bravo! will be expanding their outdoor dining with overhead coverage. Getting prepared for warmer weather. In an effort to boost customer support, they will be launching a new dining rewards program Bravo Perks. This program will allow diners to earn rewards the more they dine at the chain. With some new changes and the same great food Bravo! is hopeful for their return. Home PDF
